LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1950

We, the Senior Class of 1950, of the city of Frankfort, county of Franklin, and state of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

I, Carl Atwell, leave my quiet disposition to Charles Carter.

I, Edythe Bailey, leave my chauffeurring ability to Betty Jane Carter.

I, Sue Barber, will my wonderful seat in second year Latin Class to Gordon Shirley.

I, Tommy Bell, will my cheerleading uniform to my little sister, Patsy.

I, Peggy Clark, leave my sweet disposition to Mary Ruth. She needs it.

I, Barbara Dickerson, leave my bow legs to Boo Bell. Take care of them Boo.

I, Evelyn Downey, will my volleyball suit to Carol Cunningham, so she can piece hers to fit.

I, Daisy Gaines, will my volleyball ability to Helen Rice.

I, Carl Gardner, will my quiet way and good looks to anyone who wants them.

I, Scotty Greene, leave my position as guard on the football team, to anyone who wants it.

I, Hobart Hearn, leave my coaching ability to Donnie Karsner.

I, Jack Hoover, will my beard to Richard Baldwin.

I, Lydia Johnson, leave my love for horses, instead of men, to Susan Bengtson.

I, Elsie Kain, will my ability to tell good jokes to Spicie Hearn. Spicie don't tell any of the boys.

I, Charlotte Long, leave my speckled glasses to Mr. Botto in case he buys another Crosley.

I, Leon McDonald, will my ability to smoke on school grounds and not get caught to Kenneth Miles.

I, Barbara Mills, leave my typing ability to Betty Hill.

I, Freeda Munson, will my job as cashier in the lunch-room to Evelyn Baxter.

I, Shirley Parker, leave my quiet ways to Joyce Sermonis.

I, Bobby Price, leave my soft southern accent to Mr. Jenkins.

I, Bobby Privett, will my muscles to George Smith.

I, Freddie Reeves, leave my artistic ability to Clay Thompson.

I, Charles Salchli, being selfish, keep everything for myself.

I, A. B. Scott, leave my car to the nearest museum.

I, Nancy Shearer, will my shorthand ability to Reva Cornn. This should help a lot, Reva.

I, Peggy Sutherland, leave my ability to fall in love to anyone who thinks they can.

I, Rita Taylor, leave my ability to get my man and hold him to Jean Downey.

I, Hubert Thomas, leave my fallen arches to Paul Tinchner.

I, David Thurmond, leave my good looks to Ronnie Rose.

I, Walker Gretter, leave. Maybe.

I, Lucy West, will my short bob to Betty Joyce Shepard.

I, Margaret White, leave my dark brown eyes to Miss Hazel Arnold, (as if she needs them.) With them added to hers—oh! my.

PROPHECY

November 4, 1960

Dear Barbara Ann,

I wish you had been there for the Alumni Homecoming. Practically all of our old classmates were there. However, I guess marrying a millionaire keeps you busy.

Remember when we graduated, and what we said our ambitions were? Some have really changed their minds. Scotty Greene said he wanted to be a Veterinarian. Well, guess what he is now, a circus animal trainer. Jack Hoover is taking Arthur Godfrey's place and Tommy Bell and Walker Gretter are taking Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire's place. Remember Bobby Price wanted to be an Admiral? Well, it looks as though he settled for an ordinary seaman. Agnes Robinson is on her fifth marriage. Guess she won't be satisfied till she hooks Sherman.

I walked into the gym to see if I could see anyone I knew and to my surprise I saw Daisy Gaines. She's coaching the volleyball team and Hobart Hearn's coaching the basketball and football teams. When I walked back out into the hall, I saw a big limousine drive up. It was Hubert Thomas and Leon McDonald. They are very eligible bachelors, as they now own the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company (A & P). A. B. Scott is quite wealthy too. He has made quite a bit of money selling his cars to museums.

I was talking to Charlotte Long. She's a nurse, you know. She was telling me about Lucy West. You know how Lucy wanted a ranch to raise horses. She changed her mind because she's living in a two room apartment trying to raise three children. She also said that Margaret White still wouldn't give Tommy Smith a chance, but that Margaret White was doing well in the business world. Speaking of Tommy Smith, he is now known as "Smash-up" Smith. He's a hot-rod driver. I saw him the other day. He is one of our most frequent patients here at the hospital.

Sue Barber's managing her father's business and Rita Burge Taylor has six children. Looks like she and Bill plan to start a nursery. I saw Evelyn Downey and she's studying to be a model. In her spare time she loafs. She said that Bobby Privett, Carl Gardner, and Carl Atwell were very industrious farmers.

Dave Thurmond was there. He is an all-star basketball player for New York. Freddie Reeves has a drugstore and he has developed into a pretty good pharmacist. I guess you knew John Tufts and James Duncan were aviators. I got to talk to Peggy Sutherland a few minutes and she has a large collection of diamonds and hearts. Peggy Clark finally hooked Bill and they have the cutest twins. Charles Salchli is the new manager of the Y. M. C. A. Edythe Bailey has a good job at the State Office Building. Remember how well Lydia Johnson could draw? The Art Department at the U. of K. must have thought so too, because she is the art director. Nancy Shearer is making quite a success running a dress shop in Frankfort. Freeda Munson and Shirley Parker were quietly married. You knew Barbara Mills and Douglas were married and becoming quite prosperous.

We really had a good time at the Homecoming. It would have seemed like old times if you had been there. Oh, I must go. I hear them calling for me to come to the emergency room.

Write soon,

Elsie Kain
